

American Philological Association

Acknowledgment of Gateway Campaign and Annual Giving Contributions

2010-2011

The American Philological Association salutes its members and friends who made contributions to the Annual Giving Campaign during the last fiscal year (July 2010-June 2011) and Gateway Campaign for the Endowment for Classics Research and Teaching from the inception of that campaign in Fall 2005 through October 31, 2011. Gifts to the two campaigns are listed separately on the following pages. The Association is very grateful to its donors who are providing this vital support at a critical time.

The APA has made every effort to ensure the accuracy of these lists. Please call the APA office at 215-898-4975 or email carewj@sas.upenn.edu if you have questions or if you find an error.

2010-2011 Annual Giving Report

APA members responded with generosity to the Association's annual giving appeals during the fiscal year that just ended. Three hundred (300) donors, representing 10.3% of all individual members, contributed just under $35,000. Contributions to our current Gatekeeper to Gateway capital campaign to raise an Endowment for Classics Research and Teaching are not included in this Annual Giving Report. See the following acknowledgments of pledges and gifts to the Endowment.

Contributions to the Annual Giving Campaign are critical to the yearly operations of the American Philological Association. The donations cover costs which can not be met by membership fees alone and are applied to the annual meeting and placement service, and, when designated by donors, programs such as the American Office of L'Année Philologique and the TLL Fellowship. The Board of Directors thanks the members who understand that the Association continues to rely on the income generated by annual giving for ongoing expenses as it conducts the capital campaign. It is not easy to provide simultaneously for the present and the future, but the members cited on the following pages have done just that for the Association during the last fiscal year. We urge you to join them by returning your Fall 2011 annual giving appeal response card, returning the envelope bound into this Program, or by making a contribution through our secure web site: http://apaclassics.org/index.php/support_the_APA/

The members listed below made contributions to the Association in one or more of the following ways: (1) in response to the Fall 2010 annual giving appeal, (2) along with payment of dues for 2011, (3) along with payment of registration fees for the 2011 annual meeting, (4) in response to the Spring 2011 annual giving appeal (although contributions made in response to this appeal after June 30, 2011 will be acknowledged next year). The list also includes the name of a new life members of the Association for 2011. His name is followed by an asterisk (*). The Fall and Spring annual giving appeals continued our recent practice of permitting members making donations at or above $250 to use their gifts to honor a revered teacher. Please note that not all qualifying donors chose to make such a designation.

FROM GATEKEEPER TO GATEWAY

The Campaign for Classics in the 21st Century

Capital Campaign Report

The American Philological Association deeply appreciates the following donors who have made contributions to Gatekeeper to Gateway: The Campaign for Classics in the 21st Century. As a result of their generous support, the Association

- has already begun to use income from the Campaign endowment to operate the American Office of L'Année philologique, give an additional minority scholarship, and increase the level of teaching awards
- needs to raise only $450,000 more to meet all requirements of the challenge grant awarded by the National Endowment for the Humanities by the deadline of July 31, 2012. (You may use the enclosed envelope to help us to reach this goal.)
- anticipates future gifts that will provide additional support for the Campaign's pedagogical and outreach goals

The Campaign Committee continues to have success raising gifts in honor of revered teachers. You will therefore find in the list of acknowledgments several references to "Friends" groups that have raised these gifts. The appeals currently underway honor

George Goid
Erich Gruen
George Kennedy
Mary Lefkowitz
Michael C. J. Putnam
Zeph Stewart

The organizers of these groups felt that soliciting gifts to the Campaign for our future was an appropriate way to honor these distinguished Classicists who helped the APA to flourish in the past and whose contributions to the field live on today. Donations of any amount are ascribed both to the individual donor and to the appropriate Friends group. In addition, as is our custom, a donor of $250 or more may choose to add this tribute to the listing of his or her individual gift. (Please note that not all qualifying donors chose to make such a designation.) Lists of donors to each Friends group can be found on the APA web site. We encourage members to start new Friends groups, and ask only that they notify the Executive Director before beginning solicitations.

The contributions listed below represent pledges and gifts made through October 31, 2011 that total just under $2,100,000. Of that amount almost all has been received and invested. These funds are the foundation from which we will provide essential resources for Classics scholars and students for decades to come, and we are happy to recognize the donors who have made this possible.
